School District 22 Public Budget Consultation

The Board of Education of School District 22 invites the public to attend a consultation meeting on the district's finances and budget for the 2025-26 school year. The meeting will take place on January 29, 2025, at 5:30 PM at the School District Board Office (1401 15th Street, Vernon).

Superintendent Karla Mitchell will begin the evening with an update on the district's future vision and how it aligns with the Board of Education's strategic goals. "We are committed to ensuring that our financial planning supports the educational needs of the students we serve and aligns with our strategic objectives," said Mitchell.

Following this, Secretary Treasurer Adrian Johnson will provide a detailed financial overview, explaining the sources of revenue and the allocation of funds for various programs and services. "Transparency and community involvement are key to our budgeting process. We look forward to hearing from our community members and incorporating their feedback," stated Johnson.

Board Chair Kelli Sullivan, along with other Trustees, will be present to hear feedback from the public. "This consultation is an important opportunity for us to engage with our community and ensure that our budget reflects the values and priorities of our stakeholders," said Sullivan.

The presentation will conclude with a question, answer, and discussion session where the public can provide their input on the budget. Budget documents are available on the district's website for further review.

The presentation will be followed by a question, answer, and discussion session where the public can provide their input on the budget.
